

'Til The End

Jeremy Camp

I will fight 'til the end
Doesn't matter what the world brings against me
I will fight 'til the end
Doesn't matter what people say
I will love 'til the end
Even as the love grows colder
I will hope 'til the end
Even if everything seems hopeless

You go before me
Every step I take
Need nothing more
I will not be afraid
King over everything
And death has lost its' sting
You're alive in me
Yours is the victory

I will trust 'til the end
Even if fear's all around me
I will pray 'til the end
It's where I find my strength
I will serve 'til the end
Showing Christ to the broken, hurting
I will stand 'til the end
Even if I'm the last one standing

I believe in the one true King
I believe in Your love unending
I believe that You bled for me
'Cause I believe that the cross is everything
