

Just Friends

Jeremy Fisher

I caught a rainbow falling from the sky
It smacked me clean in the eye
Said, "Honey, I don't want no trouble with you
But I ain't gonna put up no fight"

Rainbows are funny like bombs and suns
They always break when they fall
I've fallen too many times to care if I can't even mend it all

We don't get caught up in no emotional bliss
We're just friends that sometimes happen to kiss
There ain't no reason to worry, nothing to miss
We're just friends that sometimes happen to kiss

Chase you back where something's sweet
Wash that bitter taste away
Help me forget the pain that I've felt
When my baby left me yesterday

Got no worries on my mind or in my heart
Ain't gonna throw me out the door
Ain't gonna send me no IOU
When I ask for a little bit more

'Cuz we don't get caught up in no emotional bliss
We're just friends that sometimes happen to kiss
There ain't no reason to worry, no reason to miss
We're just friends that sometimes happens to kiss

Well, we don't get caught up in no emotional bliss
We're just friends that sometimes happen to kiss
There ain't no reason to worry, nothing to miss
We're just friends who sometimes happen to kiss

We're just friends, we're just friends
That sometimes happen to kiss on the lips
