

Sing to My Heart

Jeremy Riddle

When I'm broken down
And I feel more lost than found

Sing to my heart, sing to my heart
Sing to my heart
Steady my heart, steady my heart
Steady my heart

When I try and fail
And my strength feels weak, feels frail

Sing to my heart, sing to my heart
Sing to my heart
Steady my heart, steady my heart
Steady my heart
Sing to my heart, sing to my heart
Sing to my heart
Strengthen my heart, strengthen my heart
Strengthen my heart

Till even all this darkness becomes light
Till I can see You bursting through this night
Till all my fears are drowned out in Your light
Till every lie is broken in Your smile

Sing to my heart, sing to my heart
Sing to my heart
Strengthen my heart, strengthen my heart
Strengthen my heart

When You sing to me I come awake
Roar of waterfalls calling my name
Till the moment that I see Your face
When You sing to me I come awake
Roar of waterfalls calling my name
Till the moment when I see Your face

Sing to my heart, sing to my heart
Sing to my heart
Sing to my heart, sing to my heart
Sing to my heart
