You caught me at the end of the winter
I fell on your shoulder, now I'm gettin' thinner
I swear I feel older, these days, I'm not feelin' myself
And I'm feelin' ashamed 'cause I probably need help
And this kid I knew in college, he just died on a plane
Maybe that's why I'm still scared to fly in the rain
I fall asleep knowin' nothing would change
I read a book, but you're callin' my name
I wanna feel, but I still feel the same

Ooh, ah, mmm
