

Circles

Jeremy Zucker

I've been
Walking down the same tightrope for miles
And it won't seem to end
I've been
Wandering in these circles
And I don't know where I began

Mary, don't call my name
Mary, don't call my name
Mary, don't call my name
Or you won't see this face again

You're still
Clinging to these old notions
That I won't be shit without you
I'm still
Falling asleep
When I said that I'd wait up for you

Mary, don't call my name
Mary, don't call my name
Mary, don't call my name
Or you won't see this
You won't see this face again

Mary, don't call my name
Mary, don't call my name
