

Sinking

Jeremy Zucker

I wonder, can you hear me?
Cause I am barely breathing
Don't know the ground beneath me
I fear my heart is sinking
I fear my heart is sinking
I fear my heart is sinking
Don't know the ground beneath me
I fear my heart is sinking

Never thought that you would be phony
Why you wanna say that you know me
Life is like a movie that won't stop
Even when we're taking our clothes off
I'm taking off homebound
You're calling this home now
I'm calling it misery
You say that you'll miss me
Whatever I should hear
Tell it to me straight, dear
God, I'll be so peaceful
I'm just being me so
(I wonder)

I wonder, can you hear me?
Cause I am barely breathing
Don't know the ground beneath me
I fear my heart is sinking
I fear my heart is sinking
I fear my heart is sinking
Don't know the ground beneath me
I fear my heart is sinking

Girl
I been with it
I been with you all the way
From the beach to the city
I been putting on a face
You're no stranger to a mask
You ain't lost or amazed
I been lost in a maze
Been a long damn day
(I been lost in a maze
Been a long damn day
I been lost in a maze
Been a long damn day)

I wonder, can you hear me?
Cause I am barely breathing
Don't know the ground beneath me
I fear my heart is sinking
I fear my heart is sinking
Don't know the ground beneath me
I fear my heart is sinking

I got fire in my eyes
Water in my bones

Air inside my head
Carrying me home
Fire in my eyes
Water in my bones
Air inside my head
Carrying me home
Fire in my eyes
Water in my bones
Air inside my head
Carrying me home
Fire in my eyes
Water in my bones
Air inside my head
