

Stay Quiet

Jeremy Zucker

Hold me close tonight until you start to know the truth
Shut your lips before I spill my heart and soul to you

I don't know what you saw
My camera roll says it all
Jump in my arms and fall

Stay quiet
Be my love
This silence, burns me up
Stay quiet
Be my love
This silence, fucks me up

Rather turn away
Than face the way we're supposed to feel
Take a breath and hold it in
So I know it's real

I knew you were there for me
But you wouldn't dare to speak
I'm loving you carefully

Stay quiet
Be my love
This silence, burns me up
Stay quiet
Be my love
This silence, fucks me up

(I've been trapped inside my mind and lately I don't give a fuck, give a fuck, I've been trapped inside my mind and give a fuck...)

Stay quiet
Be my love
This silence, fucks me up

I needed love
You needed me
If this ain't the old us, then what the fuck we goin' be Stressed out all day
In my head all night
Trying make some sense of these same fucking fights

Holding on
Loving from afar
You're the one
Making this so hard

Holding on
Loving from afar
You're the one
Making this so hard
