

In Technicolor, Pt. I

Jesse McCartney

Get a job, pay the rent
Wash, rinse, repeat, do it again
We all live in a black and white world
But let's face it, while time's wasting
We're all here with the same motivation
Tryna find that someone who sees your worth

Technicolor
Waiting for that
Technicolor
Searching for that
Technicolor
Waiting for that
Technicolor

When I'll find her, game over
My future, uncovered
The good, the bad, the in-between
Perfect insanity, oh
She'll hate me when I love her
And we'll fight like this forever
But she's a dream and she's mine
A spectrum of beauty and light

Technicolor
All I see is
Technicolor
She's loving me
Technicolor
Now I see
Technicolor
