

Jasmine flower

Jessi Colter

There is a flower growing wild
Growing in my heart and in my mind
Flower, jasmine flower.

Eyes that are gazing into mine
Sending a shiver down my spine
Flower, jasmine flower
Flower, jasmine flower.

And in the morning light she comes to me so bright
And then that smile so rare shines everywhere.

And in the morning light she comes to me so bright
And then that smile so rare shines everywhere
Flower, jasmine flower
Hey, girl, know your daddy loves you.
