

Meadow

Jessica Lea Mayfield

I'm afraid of the party
Please leave me alone
Don't fucking invite me
I probably won't go

When we were in the meadow
I believed you
Can I trust you now, for sure?

The devil's in the detail
Should've left 'em all out
The devil's in my head now
It feels so full of doubt

When we were in the meadow
I believed you
Can I trust you now, for sure?
Can I trust you now, for sure?

The cold hard truth is
You love me too much
The cold hard truth is
You couldn't love me enough

When we were in the meadow
I believed you
Can I trust you now, for sure?
Can I trust you now, for sure?
Can I trust you now, for sure?
Can I trust you now, for sure?
