

Sunday Island

J Sutta

I am getting in the boat now
I'm beginning to row now
Off the shore, oh
I, I take myself away from
Away from all the boredom
It's so easy, easy

Here I am again
Oh, I am fooling myself
I keep fooling myself
I love you when I'm here
But it's so easy to leave
It's easy-floating downstream
Here I am again
And I'm reteaching myself
To love you more than myself
Just when I get close
I am rowing back home
And it's over like a Sunday

This is Sunday Island
Where I, where I
Believe

I know just what to do now
I'm singing songs for you now
Like clockwork lover
Why, I don't wanna feel so stowaway
It's killing me I know it
I want more, oh

Here I am again
Oh, I am fooling myself
I keep fooling myself
I love you when I'm here
But it's so easy to leave
It's easy-floating downstream
Here I am again
And I'm reteaching myself
To love you more than myself
Just when I get close
I am rowing back home
And it's over like a Sunday

This is Sunday Island
Where I, where I

This is Sunday Island
Where I, where I
Believe

Here I am again
But it's so easy to leave

Here I am again
Just when I get close

This is Sunday Island
Where I, where I'm Lonely
