

Diary

Jessie James Decker

When I met you, I had nothing to lose
You could live without me, I could live without you
You told me all your secrets, you could tell me the truth
Yeah

Now we're inseparable like the earth and the moon
You revolve around me, I revolve around you
If I lost you now, don't know what I would do
Oh

I read your diary
I had to know what was in your head
If you don't talk to me,
You know that I'll do it again
Yeah

Before there was us, my heart had been crushed
Fell in love with a man, I gave him my trust
He hurt me so bad and that makes you dangerous
Yeah

When I found that note from your ex-girlfriend,
Started wondering what you're doing and wondering where you've been
And why you never told me that you saw her in Boston
Yeah, so

I read your diary
I had to know what was in your head
If you don't talk to me,
You know that I'll do it again (I'll do it again)
Yeah

I read your diary
I had to know what was in your head
If you don't talk to me,
You know that I'll do it again (I'll do it again)
And again

When I opened up the pages and started to read
It said that I was your everything
When I opened up the pages and started to read
It said that I was your everything

Oh, whoa-oh-oh-oh
I didn't know
Oh, whoa-oh-oh-oh, oh, oh, oh
Until

I read your diary
I had to know what was in your head
If you don't talk to me,
You know that I'll do it again (I'll do it again)
And again

I read your diary
Ooh, I had to know what was in your head
If you don't talk to me,

You know that I'll do it again (I'll do it again)
And again

You don't talk to me,
You know that I'll do it again
And again
