

Use Your Words

Jessie James Decker

Sitting here staring, studying your brown eyes
Wishing you would say the right thing
I'm always the one talking but it's getting exhausting
I'm starting to wonder if it's me

Why's it so hard to open your mouth?

(Use your words)
Come on, say something, baby, I can't read your mind
(Use your words)
Tell me, would you feel that you're running out of time?
(Use your words)
And I don't wanna give up, but I know that it isn't enough
(Use your words)
Use your words

Why you gotta shut down, get fired up and walk out
And take everything personally?
Is it your pride or ego? 'Round and 'round we go
You can't keep saying that you're sorry

Why's it so hard to fill me in?

(Use your words)
Come on, say something, baby, I can't read your mind
(Use your words)
Tell me, would you feel that you're running out of time?
(Use your words)
And I don't wanna give up, but I know that it isn't enough
