

Saint Nobody

Jessie Reyez

I think about dying every day
I been told that that's a little strange, yeah
But I guess I've always been a little strange
Another reason why I work like a motherfucker

I talk to God every single day
Devils need Jesus more than someone with a halo
Walk around with war paint on my face
Another reason why I work like a motherfucker

If tomorrow doesn't come I got my guns loaded
For the fight I'll it, I, I'll take it high
If my days are almost done and I'm the one going
I'll be alright, I'll be alright

'Cause nobody's gonna say I didn't give it all
Tiptoeing on the cliffs, I think it's worth the fall
If I get there and my tank's on "E", then I'll be okay
Destination's like it's about the journey anyway
Nobody's gonna say I didn't give it all

I think about dying every day, he said
Fuck a 9 to 5, I'm 8 to fate, yeah
Since somebody's got it worse I don't complain
Another reason why I work like a motherfucker

If tomorrow doesn't come I got my guns loaded
For the fight I'll it, I, I'll take it high
If my days are almost done and I'm the one going
I'll be alright, I'll be alright

'Cause nobody's gonna say I didn't give it all
Tiptoeing on the cliffs, I think it's worth the fall
If I get there and my tank's on "E", then I'll be okay
Destination's like it's about the journey anyway
Nobody's gonna say I didn't give it all

My daddy came from nothing so I gotta make
Just something worth the nights
That he stayed up fightin'
My momma came from nothing so I gotta make
Just something worth the nights
That she stayed up cryin'

I could bet it all on me
I could bet it all on me
I could bet it all on me
I could bet it all on me
Have some heart
(Work like a motherfucker)
(Work like a motherfucker)

Nobody's gonna say I didn't give it all
Tiptoeing on the cliffs, I think it's worth the fall...
