

Last of the True Believers

Jessie Ware

If we are driving through the streets past all the lights
That's when we're safe, that's when we know we'll be alright
If we escape the city, no one has to care
That's when I know I'll follow you anywhere

Let's be alone together
Where the sky falls through the river
The last of the true believers
Let's get lost forever
Are you hearing me?
Are you listening?

Only time will tell if you were strong enough
But now we're older, I am certain of this love
Straight through the mist would you want to walk with me
Now that we're here, I promise I will never leave

Let's be alone together
(Are you hearing me?)
Where the sky falls through the river
(Are you hearing me?)
The last of the true believers
Let's get lost forever
Are you hearing me?

[?] upon my prayers
I throw them at your feet
When the love's so bittersweet
Can you hear me, hear me when I speak?

Let's be alone together
Where the sky falls through the river
The last of the true believers
(Are you hearing me?)
Let's get lost forever
Are you hearing me?
[?] upon my prayers
Are you hearing me?
Would you stay there, stay there?
(Are you hearing me?)
The last true believers
(Are you hearing me?)
Would you stay there, stay there?
Stay there, stay there
Are you listening?
(The last of the true believers, yeah)
The last of the true believers
(Are you hearing me?)
