

You Don't Know Anything

Jesus On Extasy

Nothing left to say, nothing left to lose
I will make my way, I won't have to choose.
If you once lost anything,
You have the freedom to do anything you want.
I came to rape, I came to abuse,
I'm so damn bored, I got the blues.
Don't ask me questions about myself,
I don't know who I am.

I want to hear you scream.
I want you to believe in me.

You don't know what I've been through.
You don't know what it takes.
You don't know anything.
You don't know anything at all.
All my life tried so hard.

Mother ran away, father nearly died,
They were never happy, cause they never tried.
Time heals all wounds they say.
But some wounds never heal at all.
I have to face my own bad past,
It's so damn ugly and it seems to last.
Don't want to sing those lovesongs,
Not a single word is true.
