

Three Loves, Three

Jethro Tull

Call it what you will
I just need to hear it
Tell me, fill the night
Blow warm breath to cheer it

It's not for me
That I ask sweet reassurance
It's for you to see
To see love's firm endurance
It's not for me
That I ask sweet reassurance
It's for you to see
To see the three loves, three

Cold lambs are stirring
On the gentler edge of dawn
Good shepherds watching
Alert, they linger on

Long after sun's up
On just another day
And night's dark whispers
Have had their say
Long after sun's up
On just another day
It's for you to see
To see the three loves, three

Be it love of spirit
Of brothers, lovers, sons
Or blood-heat emotion
Burning lava, bright it runs

I'll take what's offered
Made bold and manifest
Remember me
Long gone, long gone to rest
I'll take what's offered
Made bold and manifest
It's for you to see
To see the three loves, three

Three loves, three
Three loves, three
Three loves, three
Three loves, three
