

Scene Of The Crime

Jill Johnson

The city's way too small we had a moment there and that moment said it all you're a secret I don't tell when ever I see you, I don't fight that feeling well

Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide baby you see it in my eyes no one to fool no need to lie baby this town is a heart shaped chalkline waiting for us to cross back over one more time

There was a moon that saw right through everything we did and didn't do Maybe it's crazy but it's so true you ruined me for anyone but you

I'm gonna meet you there tonight at the scene of the crime
