

Song To Heaven

Jill Johnson

Children playing
Birds out singing
But I can't pretend
There are moments
When I wish that
I won't wake up again
It is time this has come to an end
And I know that you'll understand

You were all that I have
I've hurting so bad
Heaven took you way too young
But I've cried all my tears
After three lonely years
I must realize that you're gone
Take my heart so I can move on

I've been faithful
Kept my promise
Never faulted once
What is over
Must be over
Help me come and gone
With this song I'm saying goodbye
And its hard I'm not gonna lie

You were all that I have
I've hurting so bad
Heaven took you way too young
But I've cried all my tears
After three lonely years
I must realize that you're gone
Take my heart so I can move on
Oh Oh Oh ...

With this song I'm saying goodbye
And it's hard I'm not gonna lie

You were all that I have
I've been hurting so bad
Heaven took you way too young
And I've cried all my tears
After three lonely years
I must realize that you're gone
Take my heart so I can move on
Oh oh oh...

Children playing
Birds out singing
But I can't pretend

There are moments
When I wish that
I will see you again.
