

This Is Your Last Song

Jill Johnson

It's the closing of the book
It's the end of the age
Gonna give this one more look

Let myself walk away
This is the last song that I'll write about you
These are the last tears that I'll cry over what we've been through
And I don't regret you and I won't forget you but I gotta let you go
This is your last song
This is your last song

You were every melody
Na na na
Every word I ever wrote
All the bitter and the sweet
All the love I've ever known
This is the last song that I'll write about you
These are the last tears that I'll cry over what we've been through
And I don't regret you and I won't forget you but I gotta let you go
This is your last song
This is your last song

I hope when you hear it on the radio baby you'll know it's me
Baby this one's for you if you're finally listening
This is the last song that I'll write about you
These are the last tears that I'll cry over what we've been through
And I don't regret you and I won't forget you but I gotta let you go
This is your last song
This is your last song
This is your last song
This is your last song

Na na na
Na na na
Na na na
Na na na
Na na na
Na na na
Na na na
