

Wondering Why? (You Don't Talk to Me)

Jill Scott

You don't talk to me no more
I'm wondering why not
Things have changed dramatically
I'm the same Queen
That cares for you unconditionally
Here's your friend and definitely
I ain't frontin' girlfriend, sister, never that Never that, never that, never that

I'm just wondering why
You don't talk to me anymore, -more, -more
The way you used to
I'm just wondering why
You don't talk to me anymore, -more, -more
The way you used to

You sneak and look at me sideways
Like I did something wrong
I'm just loving what I do,
Busy singing my songs
Don't get why you're mad at me
Hope this isn't jealousy
No need for that bullshit,
We're both strong, we're both strong,
We're so strong

I'm just wondering why
You don't talk to me anymore, -more, -more
The way you used to
I'm just wondering why
You don't talk to me anymore, -more, -more
The way you used to

I'm just wondering why
You don't talk to me
Like you used to I'm just wondering
Why you don't talk to me
Why you don't talk to me
I'm just wondering why
You don't talk to me
The way you used to I'm just wondering why, why
What happened to our friendship?
I don't, I don't know
I just want a friend I'm just wondering What's going on, what's going on
