

Walking shadows
Tracing silhouettes
Moon is high while my feet wandered.

I felt the tight rope break
Snap beneath my step
I'm still walking out in thin air.
Whenever I go
Will I go far
However I go
Oh I know
I go on Standing in the shadows.
Walking in forward motion
Chasing sun that I
Always needed to hold on to.
I can't be sure
Where I will lay my head
But I'll find a way to get there.
Whenever I go
Will I go far
However I go
Oh I know
I go on Morning breaks
You will see, all that's lifted off of me
I'm holding on, holding on.
I've hit the crack
Hit a wall
You might think that I will fall
I'm holding on, holding on.
I go on Standing in the shadows.
I go on Standing in the shadows.
