

Who's That Girl

Jimi Blue

I'm going crazy, that girl looks amazing, she makes my heart racing, what's your namin'
How did she get here, she's beautiful, the way she moves, is supercool

I feel like I'm in a dream, cherry red lips she licks like ice cream if you could see her you'd know what I mean!
She looks like an angel from a move scene but she's real, and she's smiling at me I'm smiling back and she's looking happy I think to my self what a wonderful world all I wanna know is WHO'S THAT GIRL?

Yeah, she's the one, gonna get the girl
Get my party on all night
This girl is gonna drive me insane!
Uuh.through the night, undercover work Till the morning hits the rise
this girl is gonna drive me insane!
All I wanna know is WHO'S THAT GIRL?

Oh yeah the girl's hot like a flame she takes away my pain, I wanna know her name the look in her eyes-makes me shiver tell me what you need baby-I deliver

I wanna be your man want you right by my site I wanna be the one talking to you all night the girl of my dreams-know what I mean life without you feels like incomplete

She makes me nautious...the way she dance I'm prayin' to god please give me a chance she's beautiful-like diamonds and pearls,
all I wanna know is who's that girl?

Try to get the timing night
Maybe we can spend the night
Walk into the morning light (here we here we go now)
Try to get the timing night
Maybe we can spend the night
Walk into the morning light
all I wanna know is WHO'S THAT GIRL?
