Daylight

Jimmy Barnes

Lock the door
Shut the windows tight
Close the curtains
Just got to block out the light
I feel the sun
Shining in my eyes
I'm just trying to cover up a little bit of daylight

Hide my face
I don't wanna be seen
Is there somebody out there
Am I awake or asleep
I feel the sun
Shining in my eyes
I'm just trying to cover up a little bit of daylight

I suppose I should get out of bed
Not sleep all day
I should get up
Get out of the house
But not 'til the end of day

Little bit of daylight
Little bit of daylight
Little bit of daylight
Little bit of daylight

Well I'm just trying to cover up a little bit of daylight
Well I'm just trying to cover up a little bit of daylight
Yes I am
