

I Am The Living

Jimmy Cliff

Yeah, yeah, yeah
I am the living, and I am the loving
I am a shelter in a hale of thunder
I am a giver, I am a taker
I am a liver and a miracle maker
At last, (at last)
It has come to pass, ooh
I know, I know
If you just let it go
You will see, that everything has its own place in its time

I am the living, and I am the loving
I am a shelter in a hale of thunder
I am the meek, and the strong
I am the right, in the wrong
At last, (at last)
It has come to pass, ooh, yeah
I know, (I know), it flows (it flows)
When you just let it go
You will see that everything has its own place in its time
You are free to solve all riddles and make your own rhymes

I am the living, and I am the loving
I am a shelter in a hale of thunder
I am a stranger, I am a friend
The beginning, without ending

Hey, I am the living, and I am the loving
I am a shelter in a hale of thunder
I am the thirst, I am the hunger
I am the oldest, getting younger
At last, it has come to pass

Living in the nature for the nature it is greater, yeah

[illegible]

I am a shelter in a hale of thunder
I am the living, and I am the loving
I am a shelter in a hale of thunder
I am the living, and I am the loving
I am a shelter in a hale of thunder
