

Club Savoy

Jimmy McCracklin

Now Richmond CA is a, great little town
And I live there and jack I, gets around
If you ever go there and you want to, jump for joy
I'll tell you where to go that's the, Club Savoy!

Now Club Savoy's where the, fine chicks make it
From 8 to eighty, triple cross-eyed blind and crazy
If you ever go there and you want to, shake your fanny
If things don't go right just, call granny!

Now when you walk in if you, look around
You'll see a big bartender about, 200 pounds
If you start some jive out, on the floor
That big bartender's gonna, show you the door!

Music Solo

Now you can bring your friends, along when you come
Everybody let their hair down and, have some fun
If you start some jive there, ain't no doubt
That big bartender's gonna, throw you out!

Music Solo

Now everybody go there to, have some fun
Cause' the joint really jumps from, 9 to one
Around midnight everybody's high and in the mood
Cause' the band starts playing them, dirty blues
