

Tomorrow

Jimmy Somerville

Like the knife of a thief
That's held close to the throat
I'm threatened by you
And the cruel way you gloat

You once turned me on, now all it seems so remote
You broke me in pieces, you cherished each blow
The harder you hit me, the stronger I grow
I'll leave you tomorrow, take my pride and I'll go

You may break the skin but you can't kill the soul
I've had all I can take
I'm leaving tomorrow, I'm leaving tomorrow
I'm leaving, I've had all I can take

Don't tell me you love me
Your tears are too late
Your trap was deception
And I took the bait

The animal in you, you can't keep at bay
I'm not your possession to treat as you wish
Your silence will slowly destroy you each day
I'm leaving tomorrow, my love for life is great

You may break the skin but you can't kill the soul
I've had all I can take, I've had all I can take
I've had all I can take, I've had all I can take
I'm leaving tomorrow, I'm leaving tomorrow
I'm leaving, yes I'm leaving

You broke me in pieces, you cherished each blow
The harder you hit me, the stronger I grow
I'll leave you tomorrow, take my pride and I'll go
I'm leaving tomorrow
