

Under the Radar

Joe Bonamassa

You were sinking lower,
Just to ride a little high.
You were in the ground to taste a bluer sweeter sky.

Something's got to give, yeah - nothing lasts this long.

It's hard to hear you say,
Your breaking up, your signal's fading.
Now you're caught under the radar.

Peace of mind, a space in time,
A part of you you'll never find.
Now you're caught under the radar.

Breathe a little faster,
This could be your time.
You can't be honest with yourself while living out that same old lie.

I can't reach for something you won't let me see.

It's hard to hear you say,
Your breaking up, your signal's fading.
Now you're caught under the radar.

Peace of mind, a space in time,
A part of you you'll never find.
Now you're caught under the radar.

It's hard to hear you say,
Your breaking up, your signal's fading.
Now you're caught under the radar.

Peace of mind, a space in time,
A part of you you'll never find.
Now you're caught under the radar.

Oh yeah...
