

I Get Mad

Joe Cocker

I get mad
I get bad
I get everything I want
I get taste
I get need
I get somebody else's fun
I get sweet
I get love
I get nothin' that I can't use
I get by
I get praise
I get somebody else's abuse
If I'm winnin' out that way
I'll turn it right on me

I get fooled
I get hot
I get somebody else's place
I get weak
I get numb
I get everything I can taste
When it's all the time lost and gone
It won't matter to me

Because I love her
And I want her
And I love her
And I want her
I love her
And I want her

I get sued
I get broke
I get nothin' that I can't see
I get heat
I get shot
I get nothin' that I wouldn't need
When I'm feelin' lost and gone
I'm gonna put it on you

I get nothin'
I get dizzy
I get somebody else's looks
I get desire
I get sweet on
I get nothin' that words don't touch
When I fall down on my knees
I'm gonna turn on you

Because I love her and I want her
I love her and I want her
I love her and I want her
I love...

I love and I want her
I love and I want her
I love and I want her...

I love and I want her
I love her and I want her...
