Sing Me a Song

Joe Cocker

Sing me a song, I'm so alone
Thinkin' about you and what you've been doin'
Where you've all gone, it's been so long
I've just been thinkin' 'bout how you've been feelin'

Sad days, sad nights
Oh we know it, oh so well
Some come, some go
But it's what you got to show helps make it better

There's no disguised look in your eyes
But maybe a look to protect you
There're nothin' strange, we all feel the same
What do you do with protection?

Sad days, sad nights
Oh we know it, oh so well
Some come, some go
But it's what you got to show helps make it better
