

Just a Regular Joe

Joe Diffie

Well ever since I was a little bitty boy
Just listenin' to my heroes sing
I knew someday if I could find a way
I'd be doin' the very same thing
Well dreams come true, Lord, I know they do
And I can feel it down in my soul
You better make a little room
At the top for a regular Joe

'Cause if you leave it up to me
I'm gonna be exactly what I've always been
The same old guy just havin' a good time
Singin' for all my friends
Well you'll hear me say till my dyin' day
I'm the luckiest man I know
And anybody that knows me knows
I'm just a regular Joe

Now old lady luck came lookin' for a lover
And I reckon I'm her man
In the right place at the right time
And suddenly here I am
When this train pulls out
Well there ain't no doubt
I'm gonna ride her just as far as she goes
And at the end of the line, you're gonna find
I'm just a regular Joe

'Cause if you leave it up to me
I'm gonna be exactly what I've always been
The same old guy just havin' a good time
Singin' for all my friends
Well you'll hear me say till my dyin' day
I'm the luckiest man I know
And anybody that knows me knows
I'm just a regular Joe

So crank up the sound and turn up the lights
Let's get this show on the road
'Cause you're gonna party tonight with a regular Joe Ya, you're gonna party tonight with a regular Joe
