

Young & Reckless

Joe Jonas

You got that burning in your eyes
Always a creature of the night
Just like a bullet into life, young & reckless!
But I am the one who knows the truth,
When all the lights go down on you,
You're finding it hard to make it through,
Young & reckless!

A boy asleep in the darkest light,
A girl awakes to another guy,
But he knows, the hole inside his soul
He's reaching out, but she cannot hear
Through all the stars that are falling near
He wants the noise to disappear, yeah yeah!

You got that burning in your eyes
Always a creature of the night
Just like a bullet into life, young & reckless!
But I am the one who knows the truth,
When all the lights go down on you,
You're finding it hard to make it through,
Young & reckless!

She doesn't stay, but he has to leave
To run away is the hardest thing
He knows for now she's best alone
Ooh, she finds the beauty in the pain
He wants to help but it's only ??
It's so hard to see those broken wings!

You got that burning in your eyes
Always a creature of the night
Just like a bullet into life, young & reckless!
But I am the one who knows the truth,
When all the lights go down on you,
You're finding it hard to make it through,
Young & reckless!

Baby baby, it's so hard
Baby baby, it's so hard
Baby baby

You got that burning in your eyes
Always a creature of the night
Just like a bullet into life, young & reckless!
But I am the one who knows the truth,
When all the lights go down on you,
You're finding it hard to make it through,
Young & reckless!
