

Wide Awake

Joe McElderry

First kiss, first touch
First time you ever said it back
When I close my eyes I still remember
Too much, too fast
Too good to ever make it last
And when I woke up you were gone

Now I keep dreaming of falling back to sleep
Cause I know you will be waiting there for me
And every breath keeps me praying for the night
Cause I know your on the other side
But I'm wide awake
I'm wide awake since you went away
I'm wide awake

Last hope, last chance
Last time ever I felt alive
Was before the morning pulled you under
Tonight to close to lose the only thing
That I ever believed could save me now

Now I keep dreaming of falling back to sleep
Cause I know you will be waiting there for me
And every breath keeps me praying for the night
Cause I know your on the other side
But I'm wide awake
But I'm wide awake

I'm wide awake
I'm wide awake
I can't escape
I'm wide awake

Now I keep dreaming of falling back to sleep
Cause I know you will be waiting there for me
And every breath keeps me praying for the night
Cause I know your on the other side
But I'm wide awake
I'm wide awake since you went away
I'm wide awake

But I'm wide awake
I'm wide awake since you went away
I'm wide awake

I'm wide awake
