

The Mist Is Rising

Joe Perry

I've got too much sorrow
I feel too much pain
I won't see tomorrow
If this stays the same
You treat things so lightly
You think it's a game
With me it's a nightmare
And the scenes never change

The mist is rising
And i'm chilled to the bone
The moon is still hiding
I never felt so alone
Forget about prices
I don't want the gold
I want no advices
I just want you alone

Chorus:
So here's a solution
We'll try it today
You're my salvation
Just listen to me.
