

By the River Sainte Marie

Joe Williams

I left her by the River Sainte Marie
We pledged our love until eternity
Along the pebbled pathway from her door
We kissed and then we kissed again
And parted on the shore

The Angelus rang out upon the sea
I saw her kneel and say a prayer for me
When winter's gone and spring is on
I'll meet her by the River Sainte Marie
