

Beautiful

Joe

Away with all your makeup
You should only wear it on your face in jest
Now you wipe off your bleeding blush
With a torn off piece of your old prom dress
Spill your troubles on me love
I will bear your burden
'Cause I may find
Wearing on your mind

I can make you beautiful again
Lie awake lover
I can make you beautiful again

I read between the lines on your face
You can erase the bitter work of my past
Ain't gonna be no more of my sleeping around
Your double bed will be my last
So spill your troubles on me love
I will bear your burden
'Cause I may find
Wearing on your mind

I can make you beautiful again
Lie awake lover
And I can make the headlines in your face disappear
When you lie awake with me
I can make you beautiful again

"Why are you so bothersome
Why do you still care?"

Go on spill your troubles on me love
I will bear your burden
And I may find
Wearing on your mind
I can make you beautiful again
Lie awake with me
Lie awake with me
And I can make the headlines in your face disappear
Lie awake with me
Lie awake with me
I can make you beautiful again
Lie awake with me
I can make you beautiful again
