

Big Time

Joey McIntyre

I turn the radio on and I hear your song (blah blah la la)
I used to think we were friends but I guess
I was wrong
(ha ha long gone)

I think it's funny how Ya high and mighty now
So from all the people in your circle that you won't allow Here's a little advice
I think you should know

Hey big time
Ya so famous
In the the big time
Up where your name is You got one hit record and you think you're LEGIT
You got 15 minutes
and you think this is it
Hey big time
On the way back down
I'll be around

Someone sent me a link
I saw your new video (well well well well)
I think I did that before you're so original (ha ha ha ha)

I think it's such a shame
You're caught up in the game
You think that you're on stage 24 hours a day
Here's a little advice
before you go...(crazy)

You're actin' like
I'm stalking you
So I stopped calling you I wonder why they following you
