

National Anthem Of Love

Joey McIntyre

This is the national anthem of love
Stepped into the car five words and your wrong
She wants to go home Can't remember a word you said all you know is you're dead
If you don't straighten things out
And you know you're dead if you don't
So baby if you wanna get some

Love, if you make it right you can stay all night
If you get it wrong, you better fix it
Love, if you keep it real it'll make you feel
In a million ways you never felt before

This is the superbowl of love
You wanna play but it's just too rough and you wanna go home
Just remember it's only a game
Win or lose no one's to blame, would you rather be alone
And you know you don't
So baby if you wanna get some

She's gone
You're wrong
New dawn
It's on
Baby believe me when I say
It don't matter anyway
'Cause we got love (love, love, love, love)
It's all we got
