

Dreamer

Joey + Rory

There's a blonde haired boy with a diamond ring
In a town where I was raised
I left him heart broke there last spring
And headed down that old highway
The boys I meet here sure are swell
But it didn't take me long to find
How I miss that place I knew so well
And that blue eyed boy of mine

[Chorus:]

Dreamer, dreamer the grass ain't no greener
Whoever spread that rumor lied
Dreamer, dreamer the grass ain't no greener
It ain't no greener on the other side

There's a two room house near an old hay barn
With a hole in the front porch screen
As fast as I could I left that farm
To follow my big city dreams
Now there's big high risers everywhere
And concrete rows all around
How I miss that front porch rockin' chair
Watchin' the sun go down

[Chorus x2]

No it ain't no greener on the other side
