

Time And Time Again

Johan

Just think about
All of these things
'Cause what you see is what you get
Now can you live with that?
Oh deny, this way you won't feel the embarrassment
She said she wanted to
Throw it away, and leave me all alone, she said
Do you mind if I don't get
All this crazy shit?
You call it love, call it what you want

No matter how, I can't explain
She always knew, but couldn't say
So much for all the efforts made
To make it understood

It's been a while
And nothing has changed
It's still the same old silly doubts
I can do without
Oh, I try
To fall in love
Try to calm me off

No matter what I do or say
She's always worried in a way
Too much of everything it gives to me to understand.

Time and time again, I want to hide myself
Far away from you
Tell me what to do
And tell me how to find my way to work it out
By myself stay away from you
But can't you see me through?

So you gotta go
I got to know, I got to feel
The way you feel, the way you think
I need to know, every little thing
About you and me I want to know
How much you mean to me

Time and time again, I want to hide myself
Far away from you
Tell me what to do
Tell me how to find a way
To work it out, all by myself
And stay away from you

Time and time again, I want to hide myself
Far away from you
Tell me how to find a way
To work it out, all by myself
