

Cold Coffee And Hot Beer

John Anderson

Cold coffee and hot beer
That's kinda how things are around here
We used to have such a happy home
But now we don't because she is gone
Can't get a hug nor a kiss around here
Just cold coffee and hot beer

Beer cans and cigarette butts
A sink full of dirty coffee cups
Nothin' left for me to do
But sit alone and sing the blues
It's a cryin' shame that she ain't here
Kinda like cold coffee and hot beer

Wish I could change things all around
I'd turn my world upside down
Instead of gone then she'd be here
And I'd have hot coffee and ice cold beer y'all

The lights are out and rent's past due
I really missed her paycheck too
Maybe I should go downtown
Get me a job and settle down
Then again I reckon that I'll just sit here
With my cold coffee and hot beer

Wish I could change things all around
I'd turn my world upside down
Instead of gone then she'd be here
And I'd have hot coffee and ice cold beer y'all
