

I'll Never Trust Your Love Again

John Lee Hooker

I'll never, trust your love again
I'll never, never, trust your love again
You broke my heart in two baby
I'll never trust your love again

Seven days a week I worked for you baby, I gave you all I could afford
Seven days a week I worked for you, I gave you all I could afford
I'd come home in the evening time, all you did was fuss and fight

Baby

I know I'll never, I'll never be the same no more
Never never, be the same no more
You keep me worried and bothered baby, and troubled all the time
I'm gonna leave
