

The Journey

John Lee Hooker

Me and my baby
Take a sentimental journey, you know, all alone
Me and my baby
Take a sentimental journey, man, all alone
We gonna leave, gonna leave
This ol' [?] all behind
We gonna enjoy good thing
We wants to be all alone
We gonna enjoy good thing
We want to be all alone
We gonna leave this town
Leave ol' [?] behind
We gonna take sentimental journey man, all alone
You know we goin', we goin'
Way down on the [?]
That's down in California ya know
You know we goin', we goin'
Way down on the [?]
We gonna take a sentimental journey, sentimental journey

And we wants to be all alone
My baby says she don't want to be with no one
In this whole round world but me
Don't want to be with no one, no one, no one
In this whole round world but me
(That go for me too baby)
Take a sentimental journey, sentimental journey now baby
Leave all this ol' back-bitin' behind
Yeah and I feel so happy
Me and my baby all alone
We together
Yes I feel so happy
Me and my baby all alone
We all alone by myself now people
Just as happy as a baby boy
