

Thought I Heard

John Lee Hooker

Thought I heard
My baby call my name
I Thought I Heard, I thought I Heard
My baby call my name

I'm lying down in my bed, in my bed
I Thought I Heard
My baby call my name

Must have been dreamin
Must have been dreamin, dreamin, dreamin, dreamin,
dreamin
I Thought I Heard
Her Call My Name

Haha (haha..)

She'd been gone, she'd been gone
Three years today
She'd been gone, she'd been gone
Three years today
I can't stop, I can't stop
No matter what I do, what I say
Drinkin, drinkin, drinkin,
Drinkin both night and day
Drinkin, drinkin, drinkin, drinkin
Drinkin both night and day
I wonder will
She'd have me back again
I wonder will, I wonder will
She'd have me back again
In all these years, all these years, all these years
That she has been gone
Would she have me back again
I thought I Heard, heard her call my name, my name
My name, my name, name, my name, name
Thought I Heard
Thought I Heard
My baby call my name
Must've been a dream,
Must've been a dream,
Dream, dream, dream,
Dream, dream, dream, dream
I had last night...
