

Slow Cooker

John Legend

I'm not worried 'bout tomorrow
While we're still
While we're still
While we're still soaking in today
Yeah

Don't need any extra fire, no
'Cause we will
'Cause we will
'Cause we will end up burning down this place
Yeah

Our love's worth waiting for
Just let it stew some more
Bring out each flavor and spice
Stir up what's mine and yours
Like I warned you before, yeah
I can't help that I'm a slow cooker
Slow cooker

Everybody's speeding
But you and me
You and me
You and me move at our own pace
Oh lawd

Ain't nothing like a simmer, aye
Let it be
Let it be
Let it breathe
And then we'll sneak a taste
Goddamn, yeah

Our love's worth waiting for
Just let it stew some more
Bring out each flavor and spice
Stirup what's mine and yours
Spill it all on the floor, yeah

I can't help that I'm a slow cooker
I can't help that I'm a slow cooker
I can't help that I'm a slow cooker, ooh
(Forming gold can take a billion years)
(So me and my baby, we just gon' slow cook up in here)
I can't help that I'm a slow cooker
(Forming gold can take a billion years)
(So me and my baby, we just gon' slow cook up in here)

Forming gold can take a billion years
So me and my baby, we just gon' slow cook up in here, yeah

Forming gold can take a billion years
So me and my baby, we just gon' slow cook up in here, aye

Forming gold can take a billion years
So me and my baby, we just gon' slow cook, slowly, slowly, slow

Just gon' slow cook up in
Slow, slow, slow, slow
Slowly, slowly
Forming gold can take a billion years
So me and my baby, come on, baby, slow, slow, slow, slow
Slow
