What you gonna do
When the river runs dry
Put your drills in the mud
And death up in the sky
You should have saved those bottles
You should have saved those cans
You shouldn't ought'a listen to the plastic man

And there's no more toilet paper It's gone just like the trees Do you like the taste of honey Isn't it best without the bees Be careful what you're doing You're messing up my life And if all the world's a cake Then you cut too big a slice

What's it all about
They scream and then they shout
Don't ask me
'Cause I don't know
What's it all about
They scream and then they shout
Don't blame me
I told you so

You read it in the papers You hear it on the news Very few listen A spew without a view And is it really worth it Choking on remote I can see the red tide coming But I don't even vote Infection in the greenhouse Dizzy in the clouds Oily as an ocean Heaven disembowelled Still planning on a future Well lucky for some You can develop your body But your mind is still a slum

What's it all about
They scream and then they shout
Don't ask me
'Cause I don't know
What's it all about
They scream and then they shout
Don't blame me
I told you so

The product in the packaging Of multi-layered glam 150 layers of materials To cover up a sham Protecting my planet Wrap it in plastic
The package is product
Perfected eternal
A crap in a cling wrap
I never met yet a prime minister or president
Who told the truth yet

Swimming in the slurry
Burning in the heat
Wind blown is the weather
I eat what you secrete
Climb the highest derrick
This circus has no prayer
No UFO to save us
And do we really care

What's it all about
They scream and then they shout
Don't ask me
'Cause I don't know
What's it all about
They scream and then they shout
Don't blame me
I told you so

What's it all about
They scream and then they shout
Don't ask me
'Cause I don't know
What's it all about
They scream and then they shout
Don't blame me
I told you so

What's it all about
They scream and then they shout
Don't ask me
'Cause I don't know
What's it all about
They scream and then they shout
Don't blame me
I told you so

Kiss goodbye to the earth, the sun, the moon

It's easy to deceive a child
