

Bright Abyss

John Mark McMillan

We spark off
Glitter into the night
Hours before dawn's recurring light
So comes the abyss
But the abyss, she is bright
Whoever told you there was something wrong with you like you just weren't right
Whoever said that there was something missing deep down inside your life
Whoever told you that you needed something that you didn't have Made you feel like you were fractured and your head was bad

We break off
Flicker into the dark

Dim on the rim of our story arc
Running to the abyss
But the abyss, she is ours
Didn't anyone ever tell you that you're a dream of god
And you live your whole life suspended in the great beyond
Even science says we were made from the dust of the dying stars
So does that mean when heaven dies that it comes to us

Over and over again
Ah, oh, oh, oh
Ah, oh, oh, over and over, my friend
Ah, oh, oh, oh
