

Silent Night (Smile in the Mystery)

John Mark McMillan

Silent night
Holy night
All is calm
All is bright
Round yon virgin mother and child
Lonely infant so tender and mild
Sleep in heavenly peace
Sleep in heavenly peace

Silent night
Holy night
All is calm
All is bright
Round yon virgin mother and child
Lonely infant so tender and mild
Sleep in heavenly peace
Sleep in heavenly peace

Invisible the hope grows
In the black where nobody knows
We smile in the mystery
In the night where nobody sees

Invisible the hope grows
In the black where nobody knows
We smile in the mystery
In the night where nobody sees

Invisible the hope grows
In the black where nobody knows
We smile in the mystery
In the night where nobody sees

Invisible the hope grows
In the black where nobody knows
We smile in the mystery
In the night where nobody sees

Invisible the hope grows
In the black where nobody knows
We smile in the mystery
In the night where nobody sees

We smile in the mystery
In the night where nobody sees
