

Walk Around My House

John Mark McMillan

Walk around my house, and turn it upside down
Your love pursues me
Walk around my house, and turn it upside down
Your Spirit moves me
Walk around my house, and turn it upside down
Your love pursues me
Walk around my house, and turn it upside down
Your Spirit moves me

You overcome my days
With the brightness of Your face
My heart will be satisfied

I will hope in the Lord
I will hope in the Lord
I will hope in the Lord
I will hope in the Lord

Open up my windows and unlock all the doors
You know You own me
Open up my windows and unlock all the doors
Blow right through me
Open up my windows and unlock all the doors
You know You own me
Open up my windows and unlock all the doors
Blow right through me

You overcome my days
With the brightness of Your face
My heart will be satisfied

I will hope in the Lord
I will hope in the Lord
I will hope in the Lord
I will hope in the Lord
I will hope in the Lord
I will hope in the Lord
I will hope in the Lord
I will hope in the Lord

Let Him be know for who He is, who He really is
Let Him be known for who He is, who He really is
Let Him be known for who He is, a God of love
Let Him be know for who He is, who He really is
Let Him be known for who He is, who He really is
Let Him be known for who He is, a God of love
Let Him be know for who He is, who He really is
Let Him be known for who He is, who He really is
Let Him be known for who He is, a God of love

Let Him be know for who He is, who He really is
Let Him be known for who He is, who He really is
