

I Still Care

John Mayall

Baby it's no use, like yesterday's dreams
That we were lovers now you're gone
When you're alone, waiting by the phone
Give me a call, I'll be there
Baby, we've been lovers, so many years
So hard to break up now, all those tears
I still care, so much more to share
Yeah, we're frail, call on me
